Section 5: Discretionary Bursary - types of awards available

Awards for the Discretionary Bursary are shown below. Please tick the relevant boxes if you feel that one of more of the categories may be relevant to you. You may not have the full details to hand now, but you will be able to give more details later. Depending on individual circumstances, costs may be provided in full for the bursary or you may have to pay a contribution yourself. Where possible, the School will make payments ‘in kind’– provide a bus pass, pay for exam resits, buy equipment, clothing or books on behalf of students or arrange payment for educational visits, for example. The School may ask that books and equipment be returned to the school at the end of your study programme so that they may be used again.

Where cash payments are being made to students, payments will be made directly to students via BACS transfer.

Justification will be required for any direct cash payments.

Additionally, where cash payments are made to students to reimburse expenditure, students must provide copies of purchase receipts as proof of purchase. These will be held on file. Any unspent money should be returned to the School.

Category	Tick	Further Details – including estimated costs where relevant (with evidence where available)

Section 6: Qualifying conditions

The following conditions apply to the receipt of bursary payments:

All payments (both in kind and cash) will be subject to meeting the attendance and behaviour requirements of the School.

- Qualifying Period – Satisfy a qualifying period of study, i.e. at least six weeks;
- Attendance – a minimum of 95% attendance (subject to exceptional circumstances). The Bursary will be reduced or even removed if attendance falls below 95%;
- Behaviour – No cause for concern and no staff perusing a level of the behaviour policy.

The discretionary allowance may be withdrawn if any of the above is not satisfactory at the discretion of The Sixth Form Bursary Panel.

Section 7: Bank Details

In the majority of cases, successful applicants will receive an award 'in kind' in the form of a bus pass, contribution towards meals, or help with educational visits, for example.

Where monetary payments are made, these will be made by BACS transfer into the students own bank account. Please insert the details below:
